ARIZONA NOTES.

Items of Interest Culled From Our Exchanges.

A company composed of Col. J. A. Fleming, Joe Murphy and Mr. Adams have a three-year lease on the old Champion mine, located about 15 miles north-east of Globe. A shaft has been sunk to a depth of 63 feet and work is now progressing on a cross cut to the ledge. The Champion is a silver mine—an old producer.—Globe Leader.

Last Monday Supt. S. S. Jones came in from the Tom Reed with the cleanup of the mill for the month of April. The bars weighed $85,000, somewhat below the usual monthly cleanup. The Tom Reed is just now in the best ore of its career, having encountered a great body on the 1075 level, and is also getting big ore in other parts of the mine.

It is announced by Professor Charles F. Willis that the University of Arizona will inaugurate next year in its college of mines a plan which will put it far beyond the standing of any school of mines in the country. Moreover, the work cannot be duplicated by any other school in as much as the location of Tucson with respect to the mines and mills and geological practices cannot be equalled.

Frank Wakefield, well known resident of Buena, in the Huachuca farming district was a visitor in the county seat today having accompanied Mr. Thomas. Frank Wakefield has been a resident of southern Arizona for fourteen years and reports that things are looking pretty good in the Buena district, the grass is coming up in fine shape and the water is quite plentiful. Mr. Wakefield's sister, Mrs. E. N. Fish was the fourth white woman to come to Tucson, about 45 years ago.—Prospector.

The board of supervisors of Apache county has sold its entire road bond issue of $125,000. The buyers are eastern parties who made the purchase through Powell, Gerard & Co., of Chicago. The bonds are five per cent bonds, and they run for thirty years with the privilege of redeeming them at any time after ten years from date of issue. The price paid was par, but the costs of selling, examining and handling makes some reductions so that the bonds net the county 95 1/2 per cent.—Flourance Blade.

OLD TIME PIONEER DIES.

News of the death of Don A. Stanford, a former resident of Tucson, at Washington, D. C., May 13, was received yesterday in a telegram to ex Governor Hughes of this city. He was more than 70 years of age. He leaves a large fortune. He was in the cattle business while in Arizona and left to reside in Washington. He was a pioneer in Arizona 45 years ago. In 1867 he married Miss Louise Bliston of Washington, D. C., who with her husband came to Arizona. They established their home south of Pantano. The cattle business carried on by Stanford increased in rapid proportions and he also invested in Tucson property.

Mr. Stanford was county supervisor and was also city councilman for some time. He also invested in land and cattle in the Sonora valley, near Patagonia, then embraced in Pima county.

About 25 years ago, after accumulating a large fortune, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford made their home in Washington, where they became well known in society.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Stanford were known as among the most substantial and energetic of the early pioneers, and counted the leading citizens of the territory among their friends. The loss of Mr. Stanford will be felt sincerely by his former acquaintances and friends.—Tucson Star.

Grijalva Sampling.

The work of sampling the Grijalva mine is progressing finely. This sampling is perhaps a new method to local mining circles. The samples are taken at intervals through the ore body developed by the workings, as evenly spaced as the conditions permit, and each sample consists of about four and one-half tons. The samples are taken so as to represent, roughly, a cube of the ore. This method is rendered necessary by the variable character of the ore and the loosely attached condition of the metal, samples taken by the usual method of channeling often losing all their values in manipulation.—Wickenburg Miner.

Good Roads Idea Gripping People.

State, county and township government in the United States spent nearly $250,000,000 for good roads in 1914 alone. In the past two years the single state of California has appropriated $118,000,000 for the improvement of her highways. All over the country the good roads movement has gripped the people—gripped them in a most unselfish and patriotic way.

The unprecedented growth of this movement within the past few months is not only encouraging—it is indicative of the foresightedness of the American public. For the money spent in betterment of roads will be returned a hundred fold. Farmers will be able to market their produce, cities will be brought into closer touch, the country will be united, land will increase in value, and over every road will pour a stream of trucks and pleasure cars that will surpass the dreams of the founders of the good roads movement. The coming of good roads means prosperity—enduring prosperity to all Americans.

So impud with the good roads spirit are the people becoming that individuals and private concerns are appropriating time and money to the cause. And possibly one of the greatest contributions in point of actual benefit to those using the highways is that of the B. F. Goodrich company of Akron, O.

During the past four years the B. F. Goodrich Company has maintained a National Touring Bureau which has marked nearly 70,000 miles of the best roads in America with permanent and attractive blue and white enamel guide posts.

ANOTHER RAILROAD.

Moster Celebration at Mascot Some Time in June.

One of the greatest celebrations ever held in Arizona will be held at the new town of Mascot some time in June, the exact date of which has not yet been fixed. The celebration will be in honor of the occasion when the Mascot & Western Railroad will be completed and connect the latest big copper producer, near Dos Cabezas, by rail with the Southern Pacific at Wilcox.

A free barbecue, baseball game, speaking, etc., enlivened with music by a brass band have been arranged for the day. The Southern Pacific will make special excursion rates to Wilcox from all points, and special trains have been chartered to take everybody free from Wilcox over the new road to Mascot.

Among those who will be present to participate are prominent state government officials, United States Senators, Congressmen, leading officials of the Southern Pacific company from San Francisco and of the El Paso & Southwest railroad from El Paso, together with officials from the large copper mines of the Southwest, besides a special train of Mascot share holders from San Francisco, whose personal wealth represents about $100,000,000, while several Pullman cars from Chicago, St. Louis and Detroit will bring prominent bankers, manufacturers, professional and business men, making the greatest aggregation of outside capital ever assembled in Arizona at one time.—Benson Signal.

Richest Copper in Arizona is Being Mined.

A Parker dispatch says:—Some of the richest copper ever found in Arizona is being developed at the Horn & Kelton mine, nine miles north of Grommet station, in the Turtle mountains. Some of the ore runs as high as 40 per cent copper, while recent assays show values of $8 a ton in gold and $12 in silver.

A tunnel is in 470 feet and the breast is 500 feet below the surface. It is expected that the main vein will be encountered soon. The ledge is irregular and shows croppings in places for a width of 200 feet. There are no claims in the group.

AMERICANS—OR NOT.

"The man," said President Wilson Monday night in his address to naturalized citizens, "who thinks of himself as belonging to a particular national group in America has not yet become an American."

He might have gone further and added that such a man is a man without a country. He has surrendered his allegiance to the country of his birth. He has not yet given his allegiance to the country of his adoption.

By taking citizenship in the new country he has cut himself off from the life and obligations of the land of his nativity. His countrymen at home would disown him. So, if he fails to identify himself with the new land, he is left without a country—like William Waldorf Astor, who isn't wanted in America or cared for in England.

Citizens of foreign birth—Italians, Germans, Russians, Austrians, English, Swedes, Servians—bring their allegiance to American, and become plain Americans. If they did not become plain Americans, where could they go?—Exchange.
